

Auditor's statement pursuant to Chapter 8, Section 54 of the Swedish Companies Act (2005:551) regarding whether the guidelines for remuneration to senior executives adopted by the annual general meeting of shareholders have been complied with

To the annual general meeting of shareholders in Saab AB (publ), Corporate Identity Number 556036-0793

We have reviewed whether the Board of Directors and the Managing Director of Saab AB (publ) have, for the year 2015, complied with the guidelines for remuneration to senior executives adopted by the annual general meetings of shareholders held on 8 April 2014 and 15 April 2015, respectively.

Responsibilities of the Board of Directors and the Managing Director

The Board of Directors and the Managing Director are responsible for compliance with the guidelines and for such internal control as the Board of Directors and the Managing Director determine is necessary to ensure compliance with the guidelines.

Auditor's responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion, based on our review, to the annual general meeting of shareholders regarding whether the guidelines for remuneration to senior executives have been complied with. We conducted our review in accordance with FAR's recommendation, RevR 8 Review of remuneration to senior executives of listed companies. This recommendation requires that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the review to obtain reasonable assurance that the guidelines adopted by the annual general meeting of shareholders have, in all material aspects, been complied with. Our firm applies ISQC 1 (International Standard on Quality Control) and accordingly maintains a comprehensive system of quality control including documented policies and procedures regarding compliance with ethical requirements, professional standards and applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

The review has involved the company's organisation for and documentation of matters pertaining to remuneration to senior executives, recent resolutions regarding remuneration and a selection of payments made to senior executives during the financial year. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risk that the guidelines have not, in all material aspects, been complied with. In making this risk assessment, the auditor considers the aspects of internal control relevant to compliance with the guidelines, in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control

We believe that our review provides a reasonable basis for our opinion below.

Opinion

The guidelines for remuneration to senior executives adopted by the annual general meetings of shareholders held on 8 April 2014 and 15 April 2015 respectively the Board of Directors is entitled to divert from the guidelines if there is reasonable grounds to do so in specific cases. As disclosed in the Administration report on page 58 under the heading Board of Director's proposed guidelines for remuneration and other terms of employment for senior executives, applicable as of the annual general meeting 2016, the possibility to divert from the guidelines has been utilized in one instance during the year.

In our opinion, the Board of Directors and the Managing Director of Saab AB (publ) have, for the year 2015, complied with the guidelines for remuneration to senior executives adopted by the annual general meetings of shareholders held on April 2014 and 15 April 2015, respectively.
